Processional Hymn: #60 – “COME WITH JOY” (v. 1,2,4 &5)

I come with joy, a child of God, forgiven, loved, and free, the life of Jesus to recall, in love laid down for me.

I come with Christians far and near to find, as all are fed,
the new community of love in Christ's communion bread.

The spirit of the risen Christ, unseen but ever near,
is in such friendship better known, alive among us here.

Together met, together bound by all that God has done, we'll go with joy, to give the world the love that makes us one.

✠ The Gathering of the Community

Leader: Blessed be the holy Trinity, one God, who forgives all our sin, whose mercy endures forever.

People: Amen.

Leader: God of all mercy and consolation

All: come to the help of your people, turning us from our sin to live for you alone. Give us the power of your Holy Spirit that we may confess our sin, receive your forgiveness, and grow into the fullness of Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Please kneel or be seated

Leader: Almighty God, you call your Church to witness that in Christ we are reconciled to you. Help us so to proclaim the good news of your love, that all who hear it may turn to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All: Amen.

The angel of God who was going before the Israelite army moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from in front of them and took its place behind them. It came between the army of Egypt and the army of Israel. And so the cloud was there with the darkness, and it lit up the night; one did not come near the other all night. Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. The Lord drove the sea back by a strong east wind all night, and turned the sea into dry land; and the waters were divided. The Israelites went into the sea on dry ground, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left. The Egyptians pursued, and went into the sea after them, all of Pharaoh's horses, chariots, and chariot drivers. At the morning watch the Lord in the pillar of fire and cloud looked down upon the Egyptian army, and threw the Egyptian army into panic. He clogged their chariot wheels so that they turned with difficulty. The Egyptians said, "Let us flee from the Israelites, for the Lord is fighting for them against Egypt." Then the Lord said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, so that the water may come back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots and chariot drivers." So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at dawn the sea returned to its normal depth. As the Egyptians fled before it, the Lord tossed the Egyptians into the sea. The waters returned and covered the chariots and the chariot drivers, the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed them into the sea; not one of them remained. But the Israelites walked on dry ground through the sea, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left. Thus the Lord saved Israel that day from the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. Israel saw the great work that the Lord did against the Egyptians. So the people feared the Lord and believed in the Lord and in his servant Moses.

Verse: When Israel came out of Egypt the house of Jacob from a people of strange speech, Judah became God's sanctuary and Israel God's dominion. Refrain Verse: The sea beheld it and fled; Jordan turned and went back. The mountains skipped like rams, and the little hills like young sheep. Refrain

Verse: What ailed you, O sea, that you fled? O Jordan, that you turned back? You mountains, that you skipped like rams? You little hills like your sheep. Refrain

Verse: Tremble, O earth, at the presence of God, at the presence of the Holy One of Jacob. Who turned the hard rock into a pool of water and flint-stone into a flowing spring. Refrain Welcome those who are weak in faith, but not for the purpose of quarrelling over opinions. Some believe in eating anything, while the weak eat only vegetables. Those who eat must not despise those who abstain, and those who abstain must not pass judgment on those who eat; for God has welcomed them. Who are you to pass judgment on servants of another? It is before their own lord that they stand or fall. And they will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make them stand. Some judge one day to be better than another, while others judge all days to be alike. Let all be fully convinced in their own minds. Those who observe the day, observe it in honour of the Lord. Also those who eat, eat in honour of the Lord, since they give thanks to God; while those who abstain, abstain in honour of the Lord and give thanks to God. We do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves. If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died and lived again, so that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living. Why do you pass judgment on your brother or sister? Or you, why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God. For it is written, "As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall give praise to God." So then, each of us will be accountable to God.

Sequence Hymn: #616 – “FATHER OF HEAVEN, WHOSE LOVE PROFOUND”

The first two verses are sung before the Gospel.

Father of heaven, whose love profound a ransom for our souls hath found, before thy throne we sinners bend; to us thy pardoning love extend.

Almighty Son, incarnate Word, our prophet, priest, redeemer, Lord, before thy throne we sinners bend; to us thy saving grace extend.

The last two verses will be sung; after the Gospel.

The Gospel

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All:
Glo-ry to you, Lord Je-sus Christ.

Then Peter came and said to Jesus, “Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?” Jesus said to him, “Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times. For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves. When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him; and, as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, and payment to be made. So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.’ And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and seizing him by the throat, he said, ‘Pay what you owe.’ Then his fellow slave fell down and pleaded with him, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you.’ But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he would pay the debt. When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place. Then his lord summoned him and said to him, ‘You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. Should you not have had mercy on your fellow slave, as I had mercy on you?’ And in anger his lord handed him over to be tortured until he would pay his entire debt. So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister from your heart.”

Priest: The Gospel of Christ.

Matthew 18.21-35

All:
Praise to you, Lord Je-sus Christ.

The last two verses will be sung; after the Gospel.

Eternal Spirit, by whose breath the soul is raised from sin and death, before thy throne we sinners bend; to us thy quickening power extend.

Thrice holy! Father, Spirit, Son; mysterious Godhead, Three-in-One, before thy throne we sinners bend; grace, pardon, life to us extend.

The Nicene Creed

Please rise in body or spirit

Leader: Let us confess our faith as we say,

All: We believe in one God, the Father, the almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Fulfil now our desires and petitions, as may be best for us, granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come eternal life; for you, Father, are good and loving, and we glorify you through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, in the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Please kneel or be seated

Leader: Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Leader: Gracious God,

All: We confess that we have turned from you and given ourselves into the power of sin. We are truly sorry and humbly repent. In your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things we have done and things we have failed to do. By the power of your Spirit, help us to forgive, as we ourselves have been forgiven, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

Priest: God, who is rich in mercy, loved us even when we were dead in sin, and made us alive together with Christ. By grace you have been saved. In the name of Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven. Almighty God strengthen you with power through the Holy Spirit, that Christ may live in your hearts through faith.

People: Amen.

The Peace

People: And also with you.

All Sing

*The ministry of the church depends on the generosity of it's members.
We give in the thanksgiving for all that God has given us.*

Offertory Hymn: #352 - "AMAZING GRACE"

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found: was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed!

The Lord has promised good to me, his word my hope secures;
he will my shield and portion be as long as life endures.

Through many dangers, toils, and snares I have already come;
'tis grace that brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun, we've no less days to sing God's praise than when we'd first begun.

✠ The Celebration of the Eucharist

Priest: Holy God, accept all we offer you this day. May we who are reconciled at this table bring wholeness to our broken world. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord.

All: Amen.

Presider: People:

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give our thanks and praise

Priest: Eternal God, Source of all being, we give you thanks and praise for your faithful love. You call us into friendship with you and one another to be your holy people, a sign of your presence in the world. When those we trust betray us, unfailingly you remain with us. When we injure others, you confront us in your love and call us to the paths of righteousness. You stand with the weak, and those, broken and alone, whom you have always welcomed home, making the first last, and the last first. Therefore, we raise our voices with angels and archangels, forever praising you and singing:

Sanctus

All sing

- - - - - Ho-ly Ho-ly Ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might;

Heav'n and Earth are full of your glo - ry, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Please kneel or be seated

Priest: Blessed are you, O Holy One: when Hagar was driven into the wilderness you followed her and gave her hope. When Joseph was sold into bondage, you turned malice to your people's good. When you called Israel out of slavery, you brought them through the wilderness into the promised land. When your people were taken into exile you wept with them by the river of Babylon and carried them home.

All: Restore us, O God, let your face shine!

Priest: At the right time you sent your Anointed One to stand with the poor, the outcast, and the oppressed. Jesus touched lepers, and the sick, and healed them. He accepted water from a woman of Samaria and offered her the water of new life. Christ knew the desolation of the cross and opened the way for all humanity into the redemption of your reconciling love. On the night he was betrayed, Jesus, at supper with his friends, took bread, gave you thanks, broke the bread, gave it to them, and said, "Take and eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Loving and Holy One, recalling Christ's death and resurrection, we offer you these gifts, longing for the bread of tomorrow and the wine of the age to come. Therefore we proclaim our hope:

All: Dying you destroyed our death, rising you restored our life. Lord Jesus, come in glory.

Priest: Pour out your Spirit on these gifts that through them you may sustain us in our hunger for your peace. We hold before you all whose lives are marked by suffering.. When we are broken and cast aside, embrace us in your love.

All: Restore us, O God, let your face shine!

Priest: Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, O Source of all life, now and for ever.

All: Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

All sing unaccompanied

Priest: "I am the bread of life," says the Lord. "Whoever comes to me will never be hungry; whoever believes in me will never thirst."

All: Taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are they who trust in him!

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

Priest: If you are joining us from home, please pray with me this prayer for Spiritual Communion.

The following is said by the Priest and those worshipping with us online.

Online: Lord of Creation, who gave the grain for bread and the grapes for wine, you are present through all the world, in the gathering of the Church and in the hearts of all the faithful. As I cannot now receive the sacrament, let your Holy Spirit fill my soul, that I may be your new creation, formed in the image of Jesus your Son.

All: Amen.

Priest: The gifts of God for the People of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

Agnus Dei

All sing

Lamb of God, Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world, have mer-cy, have mer - cy on us.
Lamb of God, Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; grant us your peace. Grant us your peace.

The Communion

Those who have been baptized in any Christian church, including children, are welcome to receive communion. If you have not been baptized yet or do not wish to receive the bread and wine, you are welcome to come forward for a blessing. Simply cross your hands over your chest to alert the priest you wish to receive a blessing. Indicate to the priest if you would like to have him intinct the wafer for you.

Communion Hymn: #43 – “FROM ALL THE WIND’S WIDE QUARTERS”

All sing

From all the wind's wide quarters, come, see the feast is spread,
of soul–sustaining waters, of true and living bread;
of sorrows long–departed, and joys beyond compare – come, poor and humble–hearted, the feast of life to share!

With mercy all–prevailing God bids the wanderer come;
in grace and peace unfailing invites the children home.
With loving–kindness tender, God frees us from our sins – in glory and in splendour the feast of life begins!

Come, claim the promise spoken! God's purpose stands secure.
The fruitful word unbroken shall evermore endure.
All ancient bondage ended to sin's corrupting powers – forgiven, freed, befriended, the feast of life is ours!

Communion Hymn: (AAH#495) – “HE WILL KEEP YOU IN PERFECT PEACE”

All sing

*Refrain: He will keep you in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Him,
He will strengthen and sustain you, tho’ all around is dim,
He’ll comfort you He’ll comfort you he will keep you in perfect peace.*

When your valley is so very deep, and your mountain is so high and steep,
He will lead so gently by His Hand for our God does know and understand. Refrain:

And with ev’ry trial that is sore, by His grace you’re able to endure.
You can sing although it may be night for you know your morning will be bright.
Refrain:

Prayer after Communion

Priest: God of peace, in this eucharist we have been reconciled to you and to our neighbours. May we who have been nourished be holy things always have the courage to forgive. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord.

All: Amen.

Please rise in body or spirit

Priest: Glory to God

All: whose power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

The Blessing

Priest: God, who by the Resurrection of his Son, has given us the gift of new life, fill you with the assurance of Christ's love and the grace and comfort of the Holy Spirit. And the blessing of God + Father, Son and Holy Spirit be upon you, always.

All: Amen.

Children and adults beginning a new year of learning are invited to join Fr. Daniel at the chancel steps.

Priest: God, bless this school year, this new season, this chance to discover the world anew. In all our anticipation, excitement and worry, help us always to make new friends as we grow and learn.

God, bless these backpacks, symbols of a fresh beginning. And bless every child and adult who carries them as new questions rise up in their hearts and new knowledge fills their minds God, bless their classrooms and everyone in them.

Priest: Bless the teachers and professors who ready their classrooms, for learning and belonging. Bless the administrators and staff as they seek to serve. Keep our schools, colleges and universities welcoming and safe.

Bless all parents and caregivers who bear the privilege and responsibility of loving, protecting, and raising these children. Give them patience and faith to trust their loved ones to the Father of all.

God, bless all who begin a new journey this month. With every step they take, may they feel your presence and hear you say, "I am with you. You are loved."

All: Amen.

Please rise in body or spirit & sing

Closing Hymn: #601 – “GOD, WHOSE GIVING KNOWS NO ENDING”

God, whose giving knows no ending, from your rich and endless store – nature's wonder, Jesus' wisdom, costly cross, grave's shattered door – gifted by you, we turn to you, offering up ourselves in praise;
thankful song shall rise forever, gracious Donor of our days.

Skills and time are ours for pressing toward the goals of Christ, your Son:
all at peace in health and freedom, races joined, the church made one.
Now direct our daily labour, lest we strive for self alone.
Born with talents, make us servants fit to answer at your throne.

Treasure, too, you have entrusted, gain through powers your grace conferred, ours to use for home and kindred, and to spread the gospel word.
Open wide our hands in sharing, as we heed Christ's ageless call, healing, teaching, and reclaiming, serving you by loving all.

Dismissal

Priest: Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Alleluia!

People: Thanks be to God. Alleluia!
